CITY EMERGES FROM DARKNESS

Strathcona Will Probably be Lighted by Electricity
Tonight.

Beginning this evening it is expected that the streets of Strathcona will again be permanently lighted by electricity, furnished by the city's own plant. It was expected that the power would be turned on last Thursday evening but at the request of The Goldie McCulloch Co. Ltd., the start was delayed till the arrival of their representative, Messrs. Ross and Ingall, who arrived yesterday afternoon.

It is now a year and a half since the plant was put out of business by the engine explosion which occurred in 1924.

From that time till January last the Edmonton power house supplied electricity to the southern city by a line across the river while the new engine and dynamo were being placed in position.

Early this year the new plant was ready for operation and the current was turned on. The test, however, of thirty days which the Goldie-McCulloch people were putting through was not concluded, for after running nine days it was discovered that the large new engine furnished by the company vibrated so badly that it was considered unsafe to run it further in the condition it then was.

It was found that the trouble was with the instability of the foundation. This question has not yet been finally settled but the corporation will likely have to pay the cost of the work done to place it in a safe condition.

Meanwhile reports were made on the plant by Taylor & McCaughaug, Edmonton, and John Stocks, Deputy Minister of Public Works, and on the advice of the latter it was decided to reinforce the old instead of building a new foundation.

This work, with the preliminaries incidental thereto, has occupied some months and was completed early last week.

During the present spring and the greater part of the past winter Strathcona streets have been in darkness and there has been much complaint from the citizens but apparently there was no remedy for the trouble.

The explosion of the first engine occurred with a terrible crash that was heard all over the city on Sunday night, Oct. 22nd, 1924, shortly after 10 o'clock.

The exact cause was never determined but the accident was supposed to have been due to the breaking of the cross head which precipitated a general smash. The following taken from a local paper describes the accident that disturbed the quiet of an autumn Sunday evening.

Engineer Mortimer was in charge of the plant and had just returned from inspecting the electric indicators to see if the load had gone down sufficiently to warrant his turning it over to the small engine and dynamo for the night as the custom has been, when suddenly and without the slightest warning there was a terrible crash and half the first engine was hurled from its base and fell into a total wreck upon the floor.

Mr. Mortimer's escape was miraculous. He was thrown down at the boiler door, by what he cannot tell but was not hurt in the least. With unendurable rage, the valves to shut off the steam which was escaping from the six inch pipe leading to the boiler were closed, but he could not accomplish his purpose so he rushed outside through the back door of the boiler-room to get a breath of fresh air, then crawling back on his hands and knees ran out to the fire to cool the boilers.

In a few minutes the steam had spent itself, candles and lamps were brought and citizens gathered round to see what had happened. The crash and escaping steam were heard almost all over the town and people realized something terrible had happened but they knew not what.

WILL USE PAPER CANS FOR MILK

London is Solving the Question of Obtaining Pure Milk Supply.

Associated Press Dispatch.

London, April 21.—The people of this continent particularly those who like Mr. Nathan Straus, have done so much in the way of the prevention of infant mortality by obtaining pure milk will be interested in what is now being done in London to solve the vexed question of the pure milk supply. For years and years London's milk supply has been blamed by medical men and health officers for a great deal of infant mortality, but very soon, in fact almost immediately, the dairy companies are to deliver milk at the doors of houses in paper pails and pailers which are said to be absolutely proof against germs of air and water.

Paper pails are being made in a new factory at a rate of fifty thousand daily, but they will require to be turned out at a rate of some million daily if the demand is to be met. These milk pails, made from wood pulp can of course be used only once. They will be cheaper than metal pails, pailers and glass bowls. For one reason, all the labor of cleaning and sterilizing will be saved.

These pails are a very simple contrivance, twelve times lighter than the ordinary milk can, and are of very strong manufacture, finished off after being rendered water proof by being sterilized in a furnace heated up to five hundred degrees Fahrenheit. Every pail has a close fitting cover, which can be quickly adjusted, and when fixed, effectually seals the milk from an outside influence.

E. Bristol be appointed foreman for said work.

That L. Bortley, Lewis Vanacke, Moses Lafond and Denis Hebert be appointed foreman in division 3 to work as directed by Councilor Chas. Dumont.

That James Couch be foreman on east town line on base line to section 2, and also between sections 2 and 3 north of base line, and also between sections 1 and 2.

That A. Dendineau be foreman between sections 3 and 4 north of base line.

That Henry Knap be foreman on north road and south between sections 3 and 2, and that Joe Labou be foreman between sections 4 and 5, all in division 1.

That Fred Goebel, Sr., and August Gieser be appointed foreman to act under instructions of Dan Frost, councillor for division 3.

That the secretary write the government to make a survey of a road division opposite section 7, township 53, Rg. 27, west fourth meridian.

That Wm. Miller be paid the sum of four dollars for work done in 1906. That the foreman be required to make their final report to the secretary not later than July 15th.

That the secretary ask the Department of Public Works to drive the spurs for two bridges, one opposite section 7, township 53, Rg. 27, and one between sections 16 and 17, township 53, Rg. 27, the district to furnish all material and build said bridges after the spurs are driven.

The council then adjourned, to meet again at the call of the secretary.

VEGROVILLE.

Mr. J. Stewart, of Brandon, was here today testing the fire engine, "Old Dan." The test was a good one. The first place to be destroyed was the Alberta Land and Loan Company's office. The engine was turned on the Alberta Hotel, the steam machine away up over the flag pole. The hose next gave its attention to a "sheepskin" who happened to cross the street. A double hose was tried and an equally strong stream was thrown from such hose. The trains are pouring in immigrants from the United States. If the steam continues Vegroville will have its share of immigrants. The people who are coming seem to be of a desirable class of settlers. What strikes one is the large families, 10 and 12 in a family. Among the settlers are people who want to buy acre trade of land, while a great many of them want to buy from a quarter to a section of land.

CABBIES LOCKED OUT.

Toronto Busses Wanted Them to Sign Agreement and They Refused.

Associated Press Dispatch.

Toronto, April 21.—Saturday night at 7 o'clock, about two hundred union cab drivers employed in a dozen of the principal livery stables of the city were locked out by the bosses. When the night shift came on the bosses presented an agreement to them to work under the old conditions, and the men refused. The bosses then declared a lock-out. Three weeks ago Bond's, Don's, Wilson's and Verral's voluntarily increased the wage scale 11 a week, making it $10. The union demanded $12 a week for a 12-hour day, six days a week.

THE CROAK OF THE LITTLE CANADA PARTY.

Mr. Bourassa in a recent interview in the House of Commons made some remarks that cast a reflection upon the patriotism of the American immigrants of Western Canada. No greater injustice can be inflicted upon a class or an individual than aspersions of this kind.

As a matter of fact the Americans are the first to resist the aspersions of disloyalty. The excitations of the republic are the first to express their amazement over the extraordinary democracy met with everywhere in a country where the monarchical form of government obtains. To insinuate that the American element does not accept in a genuine way the conditions as they find them in Canada is to grossly libel thousands of progressive people whose first inquiry after locating their homesteads is concerning naturalization.

They enter so enthusiastically into public exhibitions on Dominion Day as our native-born. In Manitoba it was the ex-Americans that first commended the decision of the government to fly the flag on the public schools.

Hundreds of ex-Americans assert it is impossible for them to appreciate how thoroughly Canadianized they have become until they visit the States again where they are ready to denounce the imputations of ultra-republicans against the English monarchy, and correct many false impressions regarding the land of their adoption.

The constant suspicion that men like Mr. Bourassa entertain and occasionally voice regarding the Americanization of the west is an injustice to the best class of immigrants we have, and the only cause of regret they have for settling among us.

A CONDEMNING APOLOGY.

Mr. Foster has made his reply to the Insurance Commission. He has been unable to detract from the argument or interference that may be adduced against him in the report. His attitude of defence is that he was not responsible for the investment of the trust funds of the I.O.F., and that they were invested under the laws of the land. His failure to disprove the charges is a condemnation of his position into matters that had no relation to life insurance, or in other words the action of the Union Trust Company had no relation to the I.O.F.

What was this relation? Mr. Foster in his speech in the House does not deny, but actually declares that the trust funds of the I.O.F. were employed to back a subsidiary company to the extent of two million dollars, and that the investments in question came from this source.

Mr. Foster was manager of this company. Now he claims that he was in no way responsible for these trust funds. The responsibility, he says, lay with the Supreme Court of the I.O.F. That is to say, that the Supreme Court of the I.O.F., which is forbidden by law to invest the trust funds of the order in speculative enterprises, can form a company like the Union Trust Co., turn over the trust funds to it, whose manager like Mr. Foster may invest them in speculative enterprises while responsibility inheres neither in the manager of the subsidiary company nor in the Supreme Court.

All this, Mr. Foster claims, neither contravenes his powers nor the statutes of the country. The real question is not whether it is legal or not, but is it right, and does it give adequate protection to the thousands of families in Canada who are the beneficiaries of the I.O.F.? The commission has disclosed this state of affairs, and it would have been false to its duty and aim if it had not struck the view from the face of such hypocrisy. Every member of the "Foresters' order" will feel grateful that such an exposure was made. The commission did strike away the vicer, and if Mr. Foster's fate was hidden there who is to blame for that?

Moreover, Mr. Foster was unable to explain away that he and his associates pocketed $20,000 in the Montague syndicate deal, and that the money was really trust money of the I.O.F. All his barbed logic does not alter any of these facts, which was the commission's warrant for investigation.

Mr. Foster's argument that no money was lost is beside the question. The transactions were speculative and forbidden by law. All these charges of high finance cannot palliate the violation of the trust reposed in him. This latter defence might have some force and appeal and not the filibustering finances of the Ontario bank management been so fresh in the public mind. Charles McNeil took the ground as Mr. Foster. His transactions revealed disastrously, and his fate we all know. The funds imperilled by Mr. Foster were more sacred than the bank funds, provided as they were for the protection of the widow and the orphan. They were given in the purchase of unimproved lands which if they became dead in the stock market would have resulted as disastrously to the I.O.F. and Union Trust Co. as the efforts of the convicted Ontario bank manager did to his institution and himself.

PRAISE FOR DR. MCINTYRE.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Globe pays a splendid compliment to Dr. McIntyre, M.P. for Strathcona, in his reply to Mr. Arthur Lavergne, member protesting against the payment of bonuses for the promotion of immigration. "This motion," says the Globe, "brought out two uncommonly good and refreshing speeches. One was delivered by Dr. McIntyre, the member for Strathcona, and the other by Mr. McLeod. The latter's reputation as a speaker is already made, but hitherto he has been regarded as a maker of eloquent set speeches rather than as a debater. Today he showed his powers in a give-and-take bout, and surprised his friends as well as his opponents by his spirit, aptness and force of reply. As a reply to the Lavergne-Lavergne campaign it was crushing and evidently disturbed those two gentlemen very much.

"Dr. McIntyre of Strathcona, on the other hand, was an unknown force, and the House experienced all the emotions of a prospectus who has struck valuable ore in place. He followed Mr. Bourassa, and that gentleman's pleasant references to the people who are coming to our shores in the name of the nation had stirred him to his very depths. His effort to expose the other side of the moderate language produced the effect of highly exciting the indignation that had an electric influence on the House. His facts and statistics were telling, and his final characterization of the efforts of the party of race to set people against people and race against race, was regularly foretold and justified. The postage stamp party is a phrase which will stick. Dr. McIntyre has the gift of reasoning well, and his speech is not common even among old parliamentarians. He has a remarkable oration on resuming his seat in the House of Commons. His speech, it must be pronounced one of the incidents of the session of 1907.

PERTINENT REMARKS.

Good-bye dear winter come again when you have shorter time to stay.

A western paper says there are lots of liars in the country. He says we submit there is marked improvement since David's time when all men were included in the list.

All this talk about Lord Aylmer's "forced retirement" is all rot. His retirement took place according to regulations approved long ago by both parties.

In the last five years 300,000 immigrants have settled in the three western provinces. Of this number 229,944 were British born. The Anglo-Saxon is mathematically safe yet.

The Toronto World implies Sir Wilfrid Laurier would have been a successful happier if he had been in jail. Not so. Being a man Mr. Foster is punishment enough without incarceration.

The London Free Press remarks that cabinet salaries should increase conditionally upon endorsement at general elections. At that rate where Mr. Foster is punishment enough without incarceration.

An Ottawa paper says Alberta seems to have greater attraction for the immigrant from Lord Fraser than even Montreal. Of course! Alberta is lively and thoroughly up-to-date. The integrity of society demands that the good name of public men shall not be at the mercy of blowing scandal-mongers.

Mr. Fowler's attack on Mr. Emmerson is the climax of a systematic policy of slander, insinuation and suggestion that began from the first session of the Liberal Party in 1892. It is the policy of sneering and pinning down the opposition by the size and power of the Opposition's criticism of the Government. Their slanders and insinuations are the last. They have placed Mr. Emmerson in a position to defend himself, and he will. Lay on Macduff!

LONDON LAUGHS AT OUTBURST

of German Press Against King Edward's Mediterranean Trip
—Interested in New Dance.

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, April 29.—A special cable from London to the New York Herald today says: "Outbursts in the German press against England or any thing in the English press are usually followed by contradictions in the English papers. But the frenzied outpourings which have been appearing in London newspapers and the German papers published in Austria, denouncing King Edward's Mediterranean tour and his visit to King Alfonso and King Victor Emmanuel have aroused not the least excitement in England.

A Silent Contempt.
Beyond publishing despatches from Berlin and other correspondents who quote what the German papers have to say, hardly a word of comment has appeared in the London press. Even the Germans talk about King Edward's "reluctant anti-German agitation" and of "a coming war." It is passed over as apparently unworthy of notice. In fact the London press is much more interested in the forthcoming visit of the German emperor, who he is promised a hearty welcome. It is expected that given only fine weather the good wood and "Cove's" week this year should be more successful than the previous one.
